"Mr. ANDERSON telephoned me on March 24 to inquire about a possible change in the Department of State's ruling on travel by U. S. citizens to Albania. I told him of the recent press announcements regarding a lifting of this instruction and added that we had not yet received official confirmation or instructions regarding procedures for amendment of U. S. passports to reflect this change.

"ANDERSON asked when we expected to receive these instructions and I replied that I was unable to predict. He informed me that he planned to travel to Bratislava for the long weekend and would inquire again on his return. He also stated that he planned to travel to Roumania towards the end of next week."

PAUL GEORGE ANDERSON, aka.

The following information has been furnished by the Consular Section, American Embassy, Vienna, Austria:

U. S. citizen [redacted] Professor of Music and Music Library Director, University of California, Berkeley, called at this office on August 18, 1967 to report that he had had several conversations with Mr. PAUL ANDERSON in Prague during the past few days. Professor [redacted] obviously a responsible citizen, was disturbed by these conversations, especially as he had revealed his Vienna and U. S. addresses to Mr. ANDERSON before the latter's conversation revealed how reprehensible an individual he is.

b6
b7C

According to Professor [redacted] he met ANDERSON in the Hotel Palace in Prague, where they were both registered.
He received the impression that ANDERSON had been in Prague for "a few days", had visited there several times previously, but had never before stayed in Hotel Palace. He was traveling with a young girl, who is assumed to be [redacted]

From the information received from Professor [redacted] it is evident that ANDERSON still claims close affiliation with George Rockwell's American Nazi Party.
Professor [redacted] was obviously shocked and concerned by ANDERSON's anti-American and racist statements.

b6
b7C

ANDERSON told [redacted] that Vienna was his headquarters and that he planned to return here on August 18 or shortly thereafter. He did not provide an address but stated that he picked up mail regularly at American Express, Vienna.

ANDERSON SHOULD BE CONSIDERED POSSIBLY DANGEROUS
INASMUCH AS HE ADVOCATES ASSASSINATION AS A POLITICAL WEAPON
AND HAS BEEN CHARACTERIZED AS A PSYCHOTIC.

PAUL GEORGE ANDERSON, aka.

The following information was obtained from the Consular Section, American Embassy, Vienna, Austria:

On August 25, 1967 ANDERSON appeared at the Consular Section allegedly for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Department of Commerce frowned upon U. S. firms and individuals who participate as exhibitors at the Leipzig Fair. The conversation which ensued revealed that he is not interested in exhibiting at the Leipzig Fair, but that he is concerned that he may be denied permission to enter East Germany in order to visit the Leipzig Fall Fair in September.

According to ANDERSON, the East German authorities took him off the train in March 1967, when he and his father were en route to the Spring Leipzig Fair, despite the fact that he had a Fair Visa. He claims that at the DDR border he was asked by an official whether he was prepared to cooperate with the East German Government while visiting at the Fair. When he expressed no interest, the official is alleged to have stated "Since you have no good reason to be going to the Fair you cannot enter the DDR."
His father was permitted to proceed to Leipzig and he was required to return to the Federal Republic of Germany.

ANDERSON stated that he intends to apply for a visa at the DDR Embassy in Prague and proceed from there to Leipzig where he expects to meet many friends and exhibitors at the Fair. He further stated that if he is successful in obtaining a visa for the DDR, he is going to refuse to get off the train should the border officials again attempt to exclude him. He expressed the opinion that by causing a fuss refusing to get off the train, the East German authorities would be embarrassed and no doubt permit him to proceed to Leipzig. ANDERSON added that should he be arrested in the DDR, his friend Mr. LANDIG would notify the Embassy.

During the course of the conversation ANDERSON refused to divulge his occupation, his source of income or his place of residence in Vienna. He did, however, let it be known that he is a racist. He expressed the opinion that all Jews in the CIA are working for the Government of Israel and that our white troops in Vietnam should be brought back to the United States in order to crush the negroes. In addition he provided the following information:

1 - He has not been able to obtain a visa to visit Hungary during the past two years. ANDERSON alleges that the Hungarian Ambassador in Vienna, JONU SIMO, informed him that his visa applications have been refused because the DDR asked the Government of Hungary not to permit him (ANDERSON) to visit Hungary.

2 - He does not have an Austrian residence permit nor is he registered with the police.

3 - He travels in and out of Austria frequently, never remaining more than three or four weeks on any of his visits.

4 - He continues to travel to and conduct business in Czechoslovakia, Portugal, Poland and Romania.

SECURITY MATTER -X

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on December 7, 1967, that Paul Anderson returned to the United States some time around the last part of November or the first part of December, and will probably stay in the United States for approximately two months.

Source also advised that subject reportedly visited Iceland, Turkey, Morocco, Spain, Austria, Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary, Germany, and Yugoslavia. According to source, his visits to the above countries deal with trade fairs.

Source stated that subject plans to go to Canada in the near future (a couple of months), and then pay a visit to Moscow, Russia.

A pretext call to Building Superintendent at 4300 Marine Drive, Chicago, Illinois (mother's residence), reflects that Anderson has been seen there on several occasions in the past ten days.

Passport Records

The passport file of PAUL GEORGE ANDERSON was reviewed by a Special Agent of the FBI on March 8, 1967, at the Passport Office, United States Department of State, Washington, D. C., and found to contain the following information:

Passport D611511 was issued to PAUL GEORGE ANDERSON on February 7, 1963, and renewed on February 4, 1966, at Washington, D. C. This passport is valid to February 6, 1968, and an application for a new passport will be made on or before that date. This passport is not valid for travel to Albania, Cuba, or those portions of China, Korea, and Viet Nam under communist control.

A communication from the American Embassy, Vienna, Austria, dated April 29, 1966, advised in effect, that on April 25, 1966, ANDERSON appeared in Vienna, Austria, with his wife, [REDACTED] national, whom he married in Budapest in 1964. He expressed a desire to bring his wife to the United States. ANDERSON claimed that he was penniless and has established this through "legal channels" in order to avoid harassment from the Internal Revenue Service. He is, therefore, unable to present evidence of financial capabilities to support his wife, but indicated that his lawyer would be willing to execute an affidavit of support for Mrs. ANDERSON.

b7C

ANDERSON still travels frequently to communist countries and does not hesitate to propound his racist views. He stated that it might now be possible for him to take a trip to Albania in view of the recent court decision that the travel restrictions which appear on United States Passports cannot be enforced.

On July 21, 1966, the American Embassy, Vienna, Austria, advised by communication, in effect, that ANDERSON stated on July 18, 1966, that he wanted to spend about two weeks in Albania on a business trip for the Austrian import and export firm, Wilhelm Landig, engaged in the business of publishing books and periodicals, and located at Number 56 Favoritenstrasse, Vienna IX, Austria. His purpose was to survey the volume and type of printed material being exported to Austria by Albania. He said the firm had warmly endorsed this proposal.

ANDERSON said that about five years ago he had attempted to visit Albania but his requests for a visa were rejected. He sighted recent press talks on the possible lift of travel restrictions on travel to Albania and he thought it might be worthwhile to try again to go there.

ANDERSON said he could make the visit without the knowledge of the State Department by the simple expedient of obtaining a detached visa, adding that he had noted that the Albanians were providing detached visas for Spanish nationals who, like Americans, are not allowed to visit that country. He said he had no intention of doing this even though he was convinced that the Department of State could no longer take away his passport in view of recent court decisions for such travel.

ANDERSON said that his personal relations with the East German authorities appeared to be strained as a result of his refusal to be recruited for espionage.

ANDERSON declined to reveal how long he intended to remain in Austria or where he resided, but did say he could be reached through the above named Landig firm.

A communication from the American Embassy, Vienna, Austria, dated December 29, 1966, advised, in effect, that ANDERSON indicated on December 3, 1966, that he desired to have his United States passport validated for travel to Albania and China, but was informed that general restrictions on travel to these two countries still applied although the Department of State was prepared to consider, individually, any request submitted by duly accredited and recognized journalists, scientists, and doctors, or others whose travel would appear to serve a meaningful purpose or would otherwise be in the national interest. ANDERSON said he planned to travel for about two weeks within Europe and return to Vienna. He mentioned a trip on Christmas day to Sofia, but did not further elaborate on his travels.

On March 7, 1968, [REDACTED] U. S. Passport Office, United States Department of State, Chicago, Illinois, advised that a review of the passport file of PAUL GEORGE ANDERSON, passport number D611511, reflected that PAUL ANDERSON of 5 North Wabash, Chicago, Illinois, born April 11, 1936, applied for a new passport of this agency on February 12, 1968. On February 15, 1968, this request and additional information was forwarded to the United States Department of State, Washington, D. C., and as of March 7, 1968, records indicate that a new passport had not yet been issued to ANDERSON.

On April 7, 1967, information was received from the American Consulate, Vienna, Austria, to the effect that on March 24, 1967, PAUL ANDERSON had telephoned the Consulate and inquired about a possible change in the Department of State's ruling on travel by United States citizens to Albania. He was told that instructions on this possible change had not yet been received by the Consulate. He subsequently stated that he planned to travel to Bratislava for a long weekend and would make inquiry again of the possible change in procedures upon his return. He also stated that he planned to travel to Romania toward the end of the week.

On March 7, 1967, [redacted]
[redacted] Coronado, California, a United States citizen, appeared at the Consular Section, American Consulate, Vienna, Austria, seeking advice, and furnished the following information to the Consular Section:

b6

[redacted] was sent abroad to Florence, Italy, where she was to spend a year studying history and art, not as a student in any particular university, but rather as a free agent. After the floods in Italy last fall, the girl decided that it would be more productive to spend her time in Vienna, and from there to travel on short visits to Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and Poland, where she could study a broader variety of art, etc.

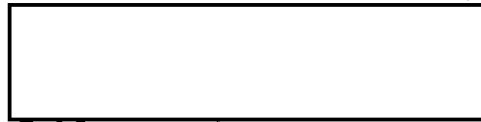

Approximately six weeks ago, [redacted] received a letter from her daughter which was sent from Budapest. The contents were a bit mixed up, but did in part state that she was studying there. [redacted] and her husband doubted that she was actually enrolled in a school, however, they did come to the conclusion that she was just spending time in museums. Subsequent letters from her daughter became increasingly vague as to what she was actually doing and where she was actually residing. It did, however, become apparent that the following return address was being used more and more frequent:

b6
b7C

Cable: Bartos Doszagyorgy.

Also, her letters seemed to indicate that this [redacted] was having an extraordinary amount of influence on her.

b6
b7C

[redacted] and her husband decided that [redacted] should visit her daughter in order to ascertain what she was doing, etc. When [redacted] arrived in Vienna on [redacted] she was surprised to meet her daughter at the mail counter of the American Express Company. She was also surprised to find her daughter a bit unkempt and in the company of a gentleman, who began to reply to the questions [redacted] asked her daughter.

[redacted] soon learned that her daughter had been [redacted] with this Mr. ANDERSON, whom she described as an egomaniac, anti-American, who hates the United States, atheist, and either communist or fascist. ANDERSON told [redacted] that if she discontinued providing funds for her daughter, he could find employment for her through his connections in Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, East Germany, or Austria. He also told [redacted] that, "You don't understand your daughter. She wants to live and really know life as it actually is - not as it is in an upper-middle class United States family, as you have shown her."

b7C

All of [redacted] efforts to persuade her daughter to spend the night at the Intercontinental Hotel and to travel around Europe with her were in vain. She told her mother that she and PAUL would go to their rooming house for the night. They, her daughter and PAUL, invited [redacted] to accompany them on their trip to Hungary, where they expected to be visiting for the next week. They also mentioned, incidentally,

b6

to [] that had she arrived last week they would have taken her to the Leipzig Fair in East Germany, where they had a wonderful time and met so many interesting people, most of whom were allegedly friends of ANDERSON.

b6
b7C

Subsequently on March 7, 1967, [] called the Consulate by telephone to inform that she had lunch with [] and ANDERSON. During lunch they had a relatively civil conversation - apparently [] had admonished ANDERSON to act like a gentleman. [] said she agreed to accompany her daughter to Budapest by air tomorrow. They will visit with this [] whom [] insists will prove to be fascinating to []. Although ANDERSON has decided that he cannot go to Budapest with them, allegedly remaining in Vienna, [] nevertheless, does not want to stay in a hotel with her mother. She informed her mother that she will stay at the home of this [] said she expects to return to Vienna on Friday.

b6
b7C

She further informed that ANDERSON asked her for United States money in order that he may exchange it at a good rate for her. She, in accordance with the Consulate's warning this morning regarding illegal exchange of currency and the avoidance of political conversations, stated that she will exchange her funds herself at a legal rate, even if it means less money to spend in Hungary. He also became a bit rude and expressed the opinion that she had received instructions from the United States Consul. He also said, "It would do you some good if you were arrested in Hungary, where you would receive the rough treatment you deserve."

[] said despite his remarks, which are not too comforting to her, she is going to accompany her daughter and hopes to be able to get her to think objectively about her present associations, way of life, and the effect all this will have on her future.

b6
b7C

Also on March 8, 1967, [] telephoned the Consulate to inform that she has decided not to accompany her daughter to Budapest and that she will depart Vienna and

b6
b7C

proceed to Greece. She stated that her decision is based on the visit of [] ANDERSON, and ANDERSON's father last night in her hotel room at the Intercontinental Hotel. She stated that despite his father's presence, ANDERSON was rude and reverted to his polemic talk. She expressed the opinion that ANDERSON's father is a gentleman, who was at first shocked when she informed him that his son is living with her child and is responsible for her degradation and present amoral attitude, which could possibly result in her complete destruction. However, when it became known through further conversation that [] wanted to make an immediate and complete break with her parents at the time they unexpectedly met on [], at the American Express Company in Vienna, and that she has been seeing her mother only because PAUL insisted that she do so, Mr. ANDERSON (PAUL's father) did not censure his son.

b7C

[] likewise advised that she finally persuaded her daughter to come to the hotel, where for the first time since she met her daughter in Vienna, she was able to speak with her alone. She said she reprimanded [] for permitting herself to be used and abused by a man who obviously has no principles nor loyalty to his own country. She expressed the opinion that [] for the first time since her arrival in Vienna appeared to be thinking clearly and demonstrated an enthusiastic desire to continue to study art and history. Although [] reiterated her desire not to rejoin her parents in the United States again, she did ask her mother to reconsider and to accompany her to Budapest in order to have the privilege of meeting [] informed her mother that this [] is a cultured man, who is an artist and historian. She further stated that [] is considered the most knowledgeable gypsy historian in Europe. [] informed her daughter that she would not accompany her to Budapest. She asked [] again in vain, to join her on her trip to Greece.

Finally, [] informed [] that unless she decided to amend her present way of life and live in accordance with the moral standards expected of her by her parents, she would have to get along on her own and not to expect financial contributions from her home. [] told her daughter that if she did become destitute and decided that she wants to come

The following information has been furnished by the Consular Section, American Embassy, Vienna, Austria, on September 11, 1967:

United States citizen [redacted] [redacted] University of California, Berkeley, called at this office on August 18, 1967, to report that he had had several conversations with Mr. PAUL ANDERSON in Prague during the past few days. [redacted] obviously a responsible citizen, was disturbed by these conversations, especially as he had revealed his Vienna and United States addresses to Mr. ANDERSON before the latter's conversation revealed how reprehensible an individual he is, according to [redacted]

b7C

According to [redacted] he met ANDERSON in the Hotel Palace in Prague, where they were both registered. He received the impression that ANDERSON had been in Prague for "a few days", had visited there several times previously, but had never before stayed in the Hotel Palace. He was traveling with a young girl, who is assumed to be [redacted]
[redacted]

From the information received from [redacted] [redacted] it is evident that ANDERSON still claims close affiliation with GEORGE ROCKWELL's American Nazi Party. [redacted] [redacted] was obviously shocked and concerned by ANDERSON's anti-American and racist statements.

b6

ANDERSON told [redacted] that Vienna was his headquarters and that he planned to return here on August 18th or shortly thereafter. He did not provide an address, but stated that he picked up mail regularly at American Express, Vienna.

The following information was obtained from the Consular Section, American Embassy, Vienna, Austria, on September 18, 1967:

On August 25, 1967, ANDERSON appeared at the Consular Section allegedly for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Department of Commerce frowned upon United States firms and individuals who participate as exhibitors at the Leipzig Fair. The conversation which ensued revealed that he is not interested in exhibiting at the Leipzig Fair, but that he is concerned that he may be denied permission to enter East Germany in order to visit the Leipzig Fall Fair in September.

According to ANDERSON, the East German authorities took him off the train in March, 1967, when he and his father were en route to the Spring Leipzig Fair, despite the fact that he had a Fair Visa. He claims that at the DDR border he was asked by an official whether he was prepared to cooperate with the East German Government while visiting the Fair. When he expressed no interest, the official is alleged to have stated, "Since you have no good reason to be going to the Fair, you cannot enter the DDR." His father was permitted to proceed to Leipzig and he was required to return to the Federal Republic of Germany.

ANDERSON stated that he intends to apply for a visa at the DDR Embassy in Prague and proceed from there to Leipzig, where he expects to meet many friends and exhibitors at the Fair. He further stated that if he is successful in obtaining a visa for the DDR, he is going to refuse to get off the train should the border officials again attempt to exclude him. He expressed the opinion that by causing a fuss refusing to get off the train, the East German authorities would be embarrassed and no doubt permit him to proceed to Leipzig. ANDERSON added that should he be arrested in the DDR, his friend, Mr. LANDIG, would notify the Embassy.

During the course of the conversation, ANDERSON refused to divulge his occupation, his source of income, or his place of residence in Vienna. He did, however, let it be known that he is a racist. He expressed the opinion that all Jews in the Central Intelligence Agency are working for the Government of Israel and that our white troops in Viet Nam should be brought back to the United States in order to crush the Negroes. In addition, he provided the following information:

1. He has not been able to obtain a visa to visit Hungary during the past two years. ANDERSON alleges that the Hungarian Ambassador in Vienna, [] informed him that his visa applications have been refused because the DDR asked the Government of Hungary not to permit him (ANDERSON) to visit Hungary.

b6
b7C

2. He does not have an Austrian residence permit nor is he registered with the police.

3. He travels in and out of Austria frequently, never remaining more than three or four weeks on any of his visits.

4. He continues to travel to and conduct business in Czechoslovakia, Portugal, Poland, and Romania.

On January 16, 1968, the following source advised that a package, believed to contain printed material, was mailed from the M. C. Anderson Company, 5 North Wabash, Chicago, Illinois, to PAUL G. ANDERSON, Landig, Verlag Favoriten Strass 56, A, 1040 Vienna, IV, Austria.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
Also known as the American Nazi Party, American Nazis, the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists,
the George Lincoln Rockwell Party

On September 8, 1967, a source advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS) was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by ADOLF HITLER. The ANP-WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and communists, through speeches, published literature, demonstrations and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization is chartered in the State of Virginia as "The George Lincoln Rockwell Party" and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to "National Socialist White People's Party," according to Commander ROCKWELL.

On August 25, 1967, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters Building. The August 28, 1967, issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun," a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that MATTHIAS KOEHL, JR., took command of the Party after ROCKWELL's assassination.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
Aka. THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

A source advised on November 14, 1960, that on that date a meeting was held in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of organizing a Chicago Unit of the American Nazi Party (ANP) which maintains headquarters in Arlington, Virginia. GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL, National Commander, ANP, took charge of this meeting.

On May 22, 1966, MATTHIAS KOEHL, self-identified as lieutenant, ANP, Chicago, advised that the ANP in Chicago is to a degree autonomous although it remains subject to the final authority of GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL and ANP National Headquarters.

A second and third source advised in December, 1966, that a directive was received from the National Headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, by the Chicago Unit of the ANP, 1314 West Ohio Street, during December, 1966, advising that the official name of the organization beginning January, 1967, would be National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP).

The second source advised on July 14, 1967, that the Chicago Unit of the NSWPP has sent out appeals for money and has had printed up literature and "throw aways" under the heading of the "American Nazi Party (National Socialist White People's Party), Natl. I. BACKGROUND

Residence and Employment

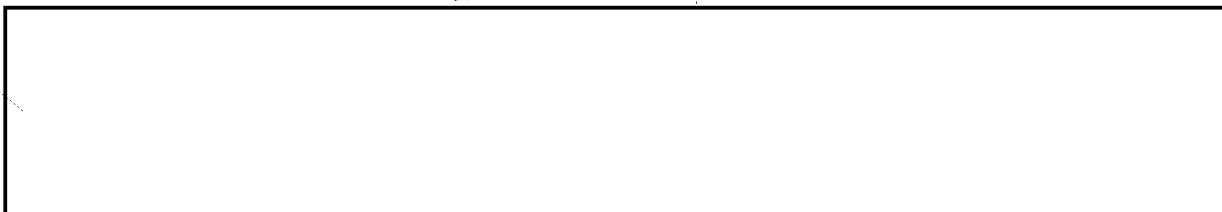

On April 22, 1968, a pretext telephone inquiry was made at the residence of ANDERSON's mother, ADELE ANDERSON, telephone BU 1-2961. The Security Unit, Chicago Police Department, furnished IC [redacted] on 8/23/61 with a written report dated 8/21/61 which concerned a private meeting of the National States Rights Party of Illinois (anti-semitic), on 8/19/61, 2000 hours at the La Salle Hotel, Madison and La Salle Sts and also picket demonstrations. This report also had within it a supplementary report which reflected that a picket demonstration and leaflet distribution at this affair was sponsored by the African-American Heritage Association (Communist front). This demonstration consisted of 25 persons who took part and it was very disorderly. Leaflets entitled "Are You a Patriotic Citizen of the United States" were also passed out to passersby.

PAUL ANDERSON, who said he was not a member of either the African American Heritage Association or the Fighting American Nationalists, but was a close friend and associate of Max Nelsen, NSRP representative, was in conversation with a Security Unit member. He appeared to be viciously anti-semitic, anti-negro and slight anti-United States government and ANDERSON said that he recently had two visitors from Germany at his home who were interested in seeing some of Chicago's night life. They went to the Chesterfield Club about 2400 hours on a Saturday evening and it was noted that many queers were there. ANDERSON asked why the police didn't close this place.

It should be noted that PAUL ANDERSON, used Post Office Box #1875 (Correction #1785) which is registered to "Maynard Nelson" National States Rights Party. ANDERSON was also discharged from the U.S. service because of bi-sexual tendencies.

"I was recently visited by [redacted]
an American citizen of [redacted] London, W. I., England, and salesman of United States mutual funds.

"During our conversation, [redacted] advised that he had traveled on October 11, 1962, from Zurich to Vienna by train and during the trip had become acquainted with one PAUL ANDERSON. The latter, born about 1936, identified himself as a free lance newspaper man and resident of Chicago.
He stated that he is a friend of the American Nazi ROCKWELL; mentioned association with two American writers, MULLINS and NELSON, who are apparently sympathetic to Nazi aims; and showed [redacted] a suitcase containing Nazi propaganda material. ANDERSON advised of his intent to visit Budapest, and said that he had written an article - contents unidentified - for the Hungarian Quarterly, a periodical published in Budapest in the Hungarian language.
It was not clear as to whether the article had yet been published.

b6

[redacted] said that ANDERSON, who bears a United States passport, is extremely anti-Semitic in his conversations. He stated that the subject stays at the Hotel Madeleine when in Vienna.

"Our Consular Section has a record which indicates that PAUL G. ANDERSON, born April 11, 1936, and bearer of U. S. passport No. 1309959 issued by the Department on February 5, 1959, called at the Consulate on March 31, 1961, to request validation of his passport for Hungary. [REDACTED] Illinois (741-3854 - unlisted) telephonically advised SA WALTER A. BOYLE at 6:20 PM on 6/26/68 that an unidentified male with a youngish voice had called her from the U.S. Army Induction Center, St. Charles, Illinois and had told her that her son was to contact his induction center that evening at 742-7738. He was to ask for PAUL ANDERSON and report tomorrow morning for induction and bring pajamas, other personal necessities and a gun if he had one.

The complainant called the above number later and the woman who answered and who refused to identify herself had said that there was no PAUL ANDERSON at this number and that she knew nothing about a phone call. She said that this was an Elgin number rather than a St. Charles number.
